

Bro. Matt

Marks Madness Selection Sunday

This means that we should Look Up, Worship God, and Look In to connect with a family of believers and Look Out to a world that needs Jesus.

1. The Call of the Gospel (Mark 1:14-15)

John had already made his mind up that he trusted God completely.

For centuries, the world had awaited this Savior. The time had now come to fulfill the prophecies of old and reveal God's offer.

2. The Call to Discipleship (Mark 1:16-17; Mark 1:19)

He asks Simon and Andrew to "Follow me." Immediately he tells them why "I will make you fishers of men."

There is a purpose in following Jesus and it isn't just so that you can make it to Heaven when you die.

Our call by God does not have anything to do with who or what we are, but rather with what He might make us become.

He has some big plans, but most of that is determined by "if we will follow."

3. The Right Response (Mark 1:18; Mark 1:20)

The greatest news of the day is that God has selected you. He desires a relationship with you.

Bro. Matt

Marks Madness Selection Sunday

This means that we should Look Up, Worship God, and Look In to connect with a family of believers and Look Out to a world that needs Jesus.

1. The Call of the Gospel (Mark 1:14-15)

John had already made his mind up that he trusted God completely.

For centuries, the world had awaited this Savior. The time had now come to fulfill the prophecies of old and reveal God's offer.

2. The Call to Discipleship (Mark 1:16-17; Mark 1:19)

He asks Simon and Andrew to "Follow me." Immediately he tells them why "I will make you fishers of men."

There is a purpose in following Jesus and it isn't just so that you can make it to Heaven when you die.

Our call by God does not have anything to do with who or what we are, but rather with what He might make us become.

He has some big plans, but most of that is determined by "if we will follow."

3. The Right Response (Mark 1:18; Mark 1:20)

The greatest news of the day is that God has selected you. He desires a relationship with you.